CONSTITUTION

THE GENERAL SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION.

It being evident, from a steady decline of a proper celebration of the National holidays of the United States of America, that popular concern in the events and men of the War of the Revolution is gradually declining, and that such lack of interest is attributable, not so much to the lapse of time and the rapidly increasing flood of immigration from foreign countries, as to the neglect on the part of descendants of Revolutionary heroes to perform their duty in keeping before the public mind the memory of the services of their ancestors and of the times in which they lived; therefore, the Society of the Sons of the Revolution has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of the men, who, in the military, naval, and civil service of the Colonies and of the Continental Congress, by their acts or counsel, achieved the independence of the country, and to further the proper celebration of the anniversaries of the birthday of Washington, and of prominent events connected with the war of the Revolution; to collect and secure for preservation the rolls, records and other documents relating to that period; to inspire the members of the Society with the patriotic spirit of their forefathers; and to promote the feeling of friendship among them.

The General Society shall be divided into State Societies, which shall meet annually on the day appointed therefor in their respective by-laws, and oftener if found expedient; and at such annual meeting the reasons for the institution of the Society shall be considered, and the best measures for carrying them into effect adopted.

The State Societies, at every annual meeting, shall choose a president, a vice-president, a secretary, a registrar, a treasurer, a chaplain, and such other officers as may by them respectively be deemed necessary, and a board of managers, to consist of such officers, and other members, as may be provided by their respective Constitutions and By-Laws, all of whom shall retain their respective positions until their successors are duly chosen.

Each State Society shall cause to be transmitted annually, or oftener, to the other State Societies, a circular letter calling attention to whatever may be thought worthy of observation respecting the welfare of the Society or of the general union of the States, and giving information of the officers chosen for the year; and copies of these letters shall also be transmitted to the General Secretary to be preserved among the records of the General Society.

The State Societies shall regulate all matters respecting their own affairs, consistent with the general good of the Society; judge of the qualification of their members or of those proposed for membership, subject, however, to the provisions of this Constitution; and expel any member, who, by conduct unbecoming a gentleman or a man of honor, or by an opposition to the interests of the community in general or the Society in particular, may render himself unworthy to continue in membership.

In order to form funds that may be respectable, each member shall contribute, upon his admission to the Society and annually thereafter, such sums as the by-laws of the respective State Societies may require; but any of such State Societies may provide for the endowment of memberships by the payment of proper sums in capitalization, which sums shall be properly invested as a permanent fund, the income only of which shall be expended.

The regular meeting of the General Society shall be held every three years, and special meetings may be held upon the order of the General President or upon the request of two of the State Societies, and such meetings shall consist of the General Officers and a representation not exceeding five deputies from each State Society, and the necessary expenses of such meeting shall be borne by the State Societies.

At the regular meeting a General President, General Vice-President, General Second Vice-President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Registrar, Historian, and Chaplain, shall be chosen by a majority of the votes present, to serve until the next regular general meeting, or until their successors are duly chosen.

At each general meeting the circular letters which have been transmitted by the several State Societies shall be considered, and all measures taken which shall conduce to the general welfare of the Society.

The General Society shall have power at any meeting to admit State Societies thereto, and to entertain and determine all questions affecting the qualifications for membership in or the welfare of any State Society as may by proper memorial be presented by such State Society for consideration.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good character, and a descendant of one, who, as a military, naval or marine officer, soldier, sailor or marine, in actual service, under the authority of any of the thirteen Colonies or States or of the Continental Congress, and remaining always loyal to such authority, or a descendant of one who signed the Declaration of Independence, or of one who, as a member of the Continental Congress or of the Congress of any of the Colonies or States, or as an official appointed by or under the authority of any such legislative bodies, actually assisted in the establishment of American Independence by services rendered during the War of the Revolution, becoming thereby liable to conviction of treason against the government of Great Britain, but remaining always loyal to the authority of the Colonies or States, shall be eligible to membership in the Society.

The Secretary of each State Society shall transmit to the General Secretary a list of the members thereof, together with the names and official designations of those from whom such members derive claim to membership, and thereafter, upon the admission of members in each State Society, the Secretary thereof shall transmit to the General Secretary information respecting such members similar to that herein required.

The Society shall have an insignia, which shall be a badge suspended from a ribbon by a ring of gold; the badge to be elliptical in form, with escaloped edges, one and one-quarter inches in length, and one and one-eighth inches in width; the whole surmounted by a gold eagle, with wings displayed, inverted; on the obverse side a medallion of gold in the centre, elliptical in form, bearing on its face the figure of a soldier in Continental uniform, with musket slung; beneath, the figures 1775; the medallion surrounded by thirteen raised gold stars, of five points each, upon a border of dark blue enamel. On the reverse side, in the center, a medallion corresponding in form to that on the obverse, and also in gold, bearing on its face the Houdon portrait of Washington in bas-relief, encircled by the legend, "Sons of the Revolution;" beneath, the figures 1883; and, upon the reverse of the eagle, the number of the badge to be engraved; the medallion to be surrounded by a plain gold border, conforming in dimensions to the obverse; the ribbon shall be dark blue, ribbed and watered, edged with buff, one and one-half inches wide, and one and one-half inches in displayed length.

The insignia of the Society shall be worn by the members on all occasions when they assemble as such for any stated purpose or celebration, and may be worn on any occasion of ceremony; it shall be carried conspicuously on the left breast, but members who are or have been officers of the Society may wear the insiguia suspended from the ribbon around the neck.

The custodian of the insignia shall be the General Secretary, who shall issue them to members of the Society under such proper rules as may be formulated by the General Society, and he shall keep a register of such issues wherein each insignia issued may be identified by the number thereof.

The seal of the Society shall be one and seven-eighths inches in diameter, and shall consist of the figure of a Minute-man in Continental uniform, standing on a ladder leading to a belfry; in his left hand he holds a musket and an olive branch, whilst his right grasps a bell-rope; above, the cracked Liberty Bell; issuing therefrom a ribbon bearing the motto of the Society, Exegi monumentum ære perennius; across the top of the ladder, on a ribbon, the figures 1776; and on the left of the Minute-man, and also on a ribbon, the figures 1883, the year of the formation of the Society; the whole encircled by a band three-eighths of one inch wide; thereon, at the top, thirteen stars of five points each; at the bottom, the name of the General Society, or of the State Society, to which the seal belongs.

BY-LAWS

OF

THE NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION.

SECTION I.

NAME OF SOCIETY.

The Society shall be known by the name, style, and title of "North Carolina Society of the Sons of the Revolution."

SECTION II.

OBJECTS.

The objects of the Society are social, literary, and patriotic; and the Society is formed for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of those men, who, in the military, naval, and civil service of the Colonies and of the Continental Congress, during the War of the Revolution, by their acts or counsel, achieved the independence of our country; to stimulate a love for historical study; to collect and secure for preservation the manuscripts, records, and other documents relating to that period—particularly those pertaining to North Carolina; to inspire the members of the Society with the patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and to promote a feeling of fellowship among its members.

SECTION III.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

Members shall be elected as follows: Candidates shall send their respective applications and documents, or other proofs of qualification for membership, through the Secretary, to the Board of Managers, which is authorized to judge of the merits of an application in such manner as the General Constitution prescribes. Upon a favorable decision of said Board, or a regularly elected committee thereof, and upon payment of the initiation fee, the applicants shall thereupon become members of the Society. Five negative votes by the Board of Managers, or a majority of those cast, shall constitute a rejection of the applicant.

The Chairman of the Board of Managers shall appoint annually three members thereof, whose duty it shall be to pass upon the qualifications of applicants for admission into the Society, and report to the said Board of Managers.

The Society reserves the privilege of rejecting any nomination that may not be acceptable to it.

SECTION IV.

OFFICERS.

The officers of the Society shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Registrar, a Treasurer, and a Chaplain, who shall be chosen by ballot from among the members thereof annually, and shall hold until their successors are elected and have qualified. The Secretary, Treasurer, and Registrar shall be residents of the city of Raleigh.

SECTION V.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers of the Society shall be fifteen in number, namely: The President, the Vice-President, the Secretary, the Registrar, the Treasurer, and the Chaplain, ex officio, and nine others who shall be chosen by ballot from among the members of the Society annually, and shall hold until their successors are elected and have qualified. Five members thereof at any meeting shall constitute a quorum. The Board shall have power to fill all vacancies and to elect its own Chairman, who shall be a resident of the city of Raleigh. It may admit members as hereinbefore set forth in Section III., and under the rules prescribed in the General Constitution. It may, through the Secretary, call special meetings of the Society at such times as it may see fit, and shall call such meetings at any time upon the written request of ten members of the Society. It may arrange for commemorative celebrations by the Society. It shall recommend plans for promoting the purposes of the Society, authorize the disbursement and expenditure of any unappropriated money in the treasury for the payment of the current expenses of the Society, and perform such other duties as may be elsewhere prescribed in these By-Laws or in the General Constitution. At each annual meeting of the Society it shall make a report in writing.

SECTION VI.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE.

The Society may, at each annual meeting, choose a Nominating Committee of seven members, to nominate officers and members of the Board of Managers for election at the succeeding annual meeting, but each member of the Society shall have the privilege of casting his ballot as he may deem best. In case the Society shall not choose such a committee, the President shall, prior to every annual meeting, appoint such Nominating Committee from among the members of the Society, exclusive of officers and members of the Board of Managers.

SECTION VII.

PRESIDENT.

The President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, or, in the absence of both, a Chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings of the Society, and shall have a casting vote. He shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Society.

SECTION VIII.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society. He shall notify all members of their election, and of such other matters as may be required by the Society. He shall have charge of the Seal, Certificate of Incorporation, By-Laws and Minutes of the Society, and of a duly verified copy of the Constitution of the General Society. He, together with the presiding officer, shall certify all acts of the Society, and, in proper cases, authenticate them under seal. He shall, under the direction of the Board of Managers, give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society, and attend the same when practicable. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings of the Society, and shall give notice to the several officers of all votes, orders, resolves and proceedings of the Society affecting them or pertaining to their respective duties. He shall be Secretary of the Board of Managers and shall keep a record of their meetings in the regular minute-book of the Society.

SECTION IX.

REGISTRAR.

The Registrar shall reeeive from the Secretary, file and keep of record, all the proofs upon which memberships have been granted; a list of all diplomas countersigned by him, and all documents, rolls, or other evidences of services in the War of the Revolution, of which the Society may become possessed; and he, under the direction of the Board of Managers, shall make, or cause to be made for file in his office, copies of such original or certified documents as the owners thereof may not be willing to leave permanently in the keeping of the Society.

SECTION X.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and shall deposit them in some bank or banking house, to be designated by the Board of Managers, to the credit of the "North Carolina Society of the Sons of the Revolution," which funds shall be drawn thence on the check of said Treasurer for the purposes of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums as shall be ordered by the Society, or by the Board of Managers. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and, at each annual meeting, render a statement of the same to the Society, when a committee shall be appointed to audit his accounts. He shall give such security as may from time to time be required by the Board of Managers.

SECTION XI.

CHAPLAIN.

The Chaplain shall be a regularly ordained minister of a Christian denomination, and shall perform such duties as ordinarily pertain to such office.

SECTION XII.

HISTORIAN.

The Board of Managers shall annually have power to appoint an Historiau, who shall keep a detailed record, to be deposited with the Registrar, of all the historical and commemorative celebrations of the Society; and he shall edit and prepare for publication such addresses, essays, papers, and other documents of an historical character, which may be read before the Society or of which the Society may become possessed (other than the Constitution, By-Laws, and Register of Members, which the Secretary is required to publish); and at every annual meeting, if there be a necrological list for the year then closing, he shall submit the same with carefully prepared biographies of deceased members.

SECTION XIII.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Society shall be held in the city of Raleigh, on the 15th day of November (except that, when that day is a Sunday, the meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day), at which a general election of officers, managers, and delegates to the General Society, by ballot, shall take place. At such election a majority of the ballots given for any officer or manager shall constitute a choice; but if, on the first ballot, no person shall receive such majority, then a second ballot shall take place, in which a plurality of votes given for any officer or manager shall determine the choice. No votes shall be cast by proxy.

At all meetings of the Society, ten members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

No question involving religious doctrine, or the party politics of the day in the United States, shall ever be discussed or considered in any meeting of the Society.

SECTION XIV.

COMMEMORATIONS.

It shall be a standing regulation that the members shall, when practicable, hold a commemorative celebration, and dine together, at least once in every year.

SECTION XV.

FEES AND DUES.

The initiation fee shall be Three Dollars. The annual dues shall be Two Dollars, payable on or before the first day of October in every year: Provided, that any member who shall have been elected, during the last three months of the fiscal year, shall not be required to pay the annual dues for the current fiscal year. The payment, at any time, of Thirty Dollars, shall constitute a life-membership, and any person, making such payment, shall be exempt from the payment of the initiation fee and all yearly dues to which he would otherwise be liable. If a person already a member of the Society shall become a life-member, no deduction, on account of past payments to the Society, shall be made from the amount of the life-membership fee.

SECTION XVI.

EXPULSION AND SUSPENSION.

The Board of Managers shall have power to expel any member, who, by conduct unbecoming a gentleman or a man of honor, may render himself unworthy to continue in membership, but the member expelled shall have a right to appeal from the decision of the Board of Managers to the Society. Whenever the cause of expulsion shall not have involved turpitude nor moral unworthiness, any member thus expelled may, upon the unanimous recommendation of the Board of Managers, but not otherwise, be restored to membership by the Society at any meeting.

The Board of Managers shall drop from the roll of membership the name of any member who shall be two years in arrears in the payment of dues, and who, on due notice to pay the same, shall fail and neglect to do so within thirty days thereafter, and, upon being thus dropped, his membership shall cease; but he may be restored to membership, at any time, by the Board of Managers, upon his payment of all such arrears and annual dues, from the date when he first neglected to pay the same to the date of his restoration. The Board of Managers may also suspend any officer from the performance of his duties for cause, and this proceeding shall be reported to the Society and acted upon, by it, at its next meeting, whether special or annual, either by a rescission of the suspension or removal of such officer, or by a confirmation thereof.

SECTION XVII.

The following being a fac simile thereof:

The Secretary shall be the custodian of the Seal, which shall be identical in every particular with the above description.

The Insignia of the Society shall be identical, in every particular, with that described in the General Constitution, the following being a fac simile thereof:

SECTION XVIII.

To all to whom these presents shall come—GREETING:

KNOW YE, That it appears from the Certificate from the Clerk of the Superior Court of Wake County that the following named persons, Elias Carr, Kemp P. Battle, Marshall DeLancey Haywood, D. H. Hill, H. B. Battle, Robt. B. Drane, S. A. Ashe, P. E. Hines, Alex. Q. Holladay, W. J. Hawkins, Tho: S. Kenan, E. Burke Haywood, F. B. Dancy, B. C. Beckwith, Graham Daves and Joseph D. Myers, heretofore, on the 22d day of December, 1893, signed and filed Articles of Agreement for the formation of a private corporation before said Clerk, and copy of said Articles of Agreement, duly certified by said Clerk under the seal of said Court, have been filed and recorded in this office, as prescribed in chapter 318 of the Acts of 1893.

NOW, THEREFORE, Under the power and authority vested in me by chapter 318 of said Acts of 1893, I do hereby declare the persons signing said Articles of Agreement duly incorporated, under the name and style of "NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION," for the period of thirty years from and after the 1st day of January, 1894, for the purposes set forth in said Articles of Agreement, with all the powers, rights and liabilities conferred and imposed by law on such corporations.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina, at office in the city of Raleigh, this 8th day of January, in the 118th year of our Independence, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

OCT: COKE,
Secretary of State.

THE ARMY AND NAVY.

By a joint resolution of Congress, approved September 5, 1890, authority is given officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy to wear, upon all occasions of ceremony, the distinctive badges adopted by military societies of the several wars in which the United States have been engaged, including the War of the Revolution.

DIRECTIONS FOR MAKING APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP.

In preparing applications for membership in the Society, careful attention to the following suggestions is recommended, in order to facilitate the work of the Committee on Admissions, and the Board of Managers:

1. Applications must be made in duplicate and in legible writing (not type-writing), upon forms issued by the Society. Every application and duplicate must be signed by the applicant, and his signature witnessed by a notary public or clerk of a court, under official seal. It must also be signed by two members of the Society, as proposer and seconder. When the applicant is not personally known to some member of the Board of Managers who resides in the city of Raleigh, his application should be accompanied by a letter from the proposer and seconder, or one of them.

2. Give record of ancestor fully but concisely.

3. It is not necessary to show the pedigree any further back than the ancestor who served in the Revolution.

4. The Society does not accept Encyclopædias, Genealogical Works, or Town and County Histories (except sometimes such as contain copies of records or rosters), as authorities for proofs of service. It suggests reference to the Records, in print or manuscript, of the several States, and of the United States Departments of War, of the Navy, of State, and of the Bureau of Pensions, to authentic State Histories, and reserves to itself the right to judge of the accuracy of any work or paper. References to authorities in manuscript must be accompanied by certified copies, and authentic family papers must be submitted, if required. In referring to printed works, the volume and page should in all cases be given.

5. When an applicant claims descent from more than one Revolutionary ancestor, and desires to record the same, separate blanks, marked "Supplemental," must be made out (also in duplicate) for each ancestor. Supplemental claims, in form and procedure, are to be treated precisely as original applications, and may be filed without extra cost.

☞ It is requested that copies of the forms and the accompanying papers be retained by the applicant, if needed for private reference, as the Secretary cannot furnish copies of their applications to members without serious inconvenience.

OPTIONAL EXPENSES.

Cost of parchment Diploma, or certificate of membership, $5.*

Cost of Insignia, or gold badge, $11.

Lapel buttons, or rosettes, furnished free of cost to members.

*The Society particularly recommends the purchase of Diploma, by members immediately upon their admission, as new officers, both State and General, may be elected at any time; and, to avoid confusion as to the date of a member's admission into the Society, the Diploma should bear the signature of those who were in office at the time of his election to membership.

HOW TO HAVE RESEARCH MADE AMONG OFFICIAL RECORDS, ETC.

SERVICES IN CIVIL CAPACITIES.—The Society recognizes services of Revolutionary ancestors rendered in civil capacities, as well as military and naval. Proof of civil services may be obtained from Government records, the legislative and council journals of the several States, the archives of historical societies, etc.

NORTH CAROLINA RECORDS.—In addition to the records, civil and military (but chiefly civil), for 1775–'76, published in Volumes IX. and X. of The Colonial Records of North Carolina, edited by the late Hon. William L. Saunders, LL. D., there are now being published by the State, under the editorial management of Hon. Walter Clark, LL. D., The State Records of North Carolina, which work is a continuation of The Colonial Records, and gives Assembly Journals, and portions of the rosters of the ten Continental Regiments (Regulars). Nearly all militia rosters are irretrievably lost. A full list of officers (but not non-commissioned officers and privates) of the ten Continental Regiments was published some years ago, and may be had upon application to the Adjutant General of North Carolina, at Raleigh. The State does not employ an official archivist, and therefore her manuscript records are very difficult of access. The archives of the several Departments at Washington give individual services of a good many North Carolina militiamen as well as regulars. This information is furnished free of charge by the Government. Neither The Colonial nor The State Records of North Carolina are yet indexed, and hence it is almost impossible to find any particular name. An index is in course of preparation, however, but will not be finished until the publication of the records is completed.

GOVERNMENT PENSION RECORDS.—The Government passed no general pension laws, except for those disabled in the war, until 1818, when it granted pensions to all those who had served nine months or more in the Continental Army (regular service, not militia), or in the Navy. In 1832 pensions were granted to all veterans, whether Continental, State, Militia, or Naval, who had served for a term of more than six months. Widows of Revolutionary soldiers and sailors, who were able to file proof of their husbands' services, were also pensioned, provided they were married prior to 1853. If an applicant has reason to believe that any of his ancestors drew pensions under these acts, he should write to the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C., who will make no charge for furnishing data, if found.

It usually takes about thirty days to get a reply from the Departments at Washington.

Persons desiring information as to how to have research made, in any particular State of the original thirteen, outside of North Carolina, will be given address of proper official upon application to the Secretary of this Society.

In Memoriam

Edmund Burke Haywood,

A.M., M.D., LL.D.

Born in Raleigh, N. C., January 13, 1825.
A Charter Member of the Society.
Died in Raleigh, N. C., January 18, 1894.

Dr. Haywood was prepared for college by the Rev. William McPheeters, Principal of the Raleigh Academy, and his successors, Silas Bigelow and Jeff. M. Lovejoy. He entered the University of North Carolina in 1843, but was compelled to leave that institution, on account of ill health, after passing his junior year. His Alma Mater honored him with the degree of A.M. in 1868, and LL.D. in 1889. Upon leaving the University, or shortly thereafter, he studied medicine, and graduated from the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania, in 1849. During the War between the States, he was a surgeon in the Confederate Army, and was for a while Acting Medical Director for the Department of North Carolina. After the war, he was President of the North Carolina Medical Society, President of the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Insane Asylum, President of the Board of Public Charities, member of the State Board of Medical Examiners, President of the Raleigh Academy of Medicine, and also held other offices of minor importance.

On November 13, 1850, he was married to Lucy Ann Williams, daughter of Alfred Williams, Esq., of Raleigh, and left six sons and an only daughter.

The Revolutionary ancestor, through whom Dr. Haywood derived his eligibility as a member of the Sons of the Revolution, was Colonel William Haywood, of Edgecombe County, North Carolina.

John Haywood, the father of Dr. Haywood, was for forty years Treasurer of North Carolina, the first Mayor of Raleigh, and served in early life as Secretary of several Provincial Congresses during the Revolution. Haywood County, North Carolina, and the town of Haywood, in Chatham County, were named in his honor. John Haywood left no children by his first wife, Sarah Leigh. His second wife, Elizabeth Eagles Assup Williams, by whom he left a large family, was a daughter of John Pugh Williams, Colonel of the Ninth Regiment of North Carolina Troops in the Continental Line, during the Revolution.

William Joseph Hawkins, M.D.

Born in Franklin County, N. C., May 27, 1819.
A Charter Member of the Society.
Died in Philadelphia, Pa., October 28, 1894.

Dr. Hawkins was prepared for college at the Spring Grove Academy, in Franklin County, North Carolina, spent two years at the University of North Carolina, and afterwards graduated from William and Mary College, Virginia, in 1840. He studied medicine and received his diploma from the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania in 1842. After successfully practicing his profession for about ten years, he became interested in railroading, and was President of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Company for more than twenty years. The Raleigh & Augusta Railroad was constructed under his management. In 1871, he was instrumental in organizing the Citizens' National Bank, of Raleigh, and was President of that institution at the time of his death, which occurred in Philadelphia, whither he had gone for medical treatment.

Dr. Hawkins was thrice married: First, on January 4, 1844, to Mary Alethea Clark, daughter of David Clark, Esq., of Halifax County, North Carolina; secondly, on December 27, 1855, to Lucy Norfleet Clark, likewise a daughter of David Clark; thirdly, on May 12, 1869, to Mary Ann White, daughter of Andrew B. White, Esq., of Pottsville, Pennsylvania. By his first marriage, Dr. Hawkins left two sons; by his second, two daughters; and by his third, an only daughter—all of whom are married.

The Revolutionary ancestor, through whom Dr. Hawkins entered the Society, was Colonel Philemon Hawkins, Jr., of the Colonial county of Bute, North Carolina, which was afterwards divided into Warren and Franklin Counties. Colonel Hawkins and his father, Colonel Philemon Hawkins, Sr., were both distinguished patriots. Colonel Benjamin Hawkins, of Washington's staff, and afterwards Indian Agent, United States Senator, etc., was a son of the elder Colonel Hawkins.

Col. Richard Irving Dodge, U.S.A.

Born in Surry County, N. C., May 19, 1827.

Colonel Dodge entered the United States Military Academy, at West Point, on the 1st of July, 1844, and graduated therefrom on the 1st of July, 1848. On March 3, 1858, Colonel Dodge was married to Julia Rhinelander Paulding, of Dobb's Ferry, New York, who belongs to the well-known Paulding family in that State, of which John Paulding, one of the captors of Major André, was a member. They had an only son, Frederick Paulding Dodge, who survives his father.

The Revolutionary ancestors through whom Colonel Dodge entered the Society were: Private Richard Dodge, of New York, who, when only fifteen years old, enlisted in the Revolution, and was afterwards a Brigadier-General in the War of 1812; and Colonel Joseph Williams, of Surry County, North Carolina, who was also an active and useful patriot in the War for Independence.
